Hey Teams,
 Exploring Michigan State University was a blast! Hope to see you next year at an old favorite, University of Maryland, College Park.
 Your friend,
OMER

The Odyssey of the Mind Newsletter is published by Creative Competitions, Inc.

The Odyssey of the Mind 2007 Spirit Award Recipient is Wayne Kehrli whose 25 years of service to OotM has enabled countless children to explore their creativity. Among other activities throughout the program, his 17 years as International Problem Captain for Problem 1 have left a huge impact on many people around the world.

The 2007 Creativity Award Goes to Whitwell Middle School, TN — especially Principal Linda Hooper and Teacher Sandra Roberts for their work creating "The Paper Clip Project." This innovative lesson took students on a journey of understanding of the Holocaust, it brought people together from varying cultures and regions, and even helped raise awareness to people around the world by inspiring an award-winning documentary about the project.

OMER's Award Recipients

• Don Estridge High Tech Middle School, Boca Raton, FL — Tag 'Em
 This team showed true sportsmanship by helping a fellow team in need, although they were also competitors.

fellow judges were relaxed and having fun throughout World Finals competitions by providing his own cheerful brand of entertainment.

• Mount Pleasant High School, Mount Pleasant, NC — Around the World in 8 Minutes

This team showed exceptional engineering ability by building highly creative mechanisms and artistically incorporated them into a "classics" problem.

Creativity Booth Winners
Most Creative: Florida Most Popular: Michigan

There were many fun activities at WF. Here, participants perform on "American Idol" at the Creativity Festival Booth hosted by Illinois.

2007 World Finals

Creativity Meets Competition

The 2007 Odyssey of the Mind World Finals was not only full of much-loved Odyssey traditions, it had many new surprises as well:

- ▶ Michigan State University survived its first World Finals successfully. Participants and supporters had the chance to experience its scenic campus.
- ▶ There was also another record-breaking year for attendance with 810 teams from 31 U.S. states and 12 other countries. Another reason World Finals was so successful was because of its dedicated 460 OotM volunteers.
- ▶ For the first time Singapore lead all associations in World Champion teams with five. New York and Poland came next with three championship teams. Florida, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, and China each had two. Tennessee, South Carolina, Wisconsin, and Texas each had one. Congratulations to every team.
- ▶ NASA gave students a chance to learn even more about earth sciences with popular daily classroom activities. Participants were taught interesting lessons from a NASA scientist and took part in fun hands-on activities.
- ▶ While the energy is always high at Opening Ceremonies, there was something special added this year. OMER celebrated his 20th birthday at this World Finals. Dr. Sam and thousands of attendees sung "Happy Birthday" to the Odyssey mascot. It was a great way to start the next three days of excitement and creative problem-solving.
