Odyssey Creativity Festival — Creative Challenges for the Community.

Odyssey of the Mind holds a Creativity Festival in order to celebrate worldwide creativity. Representatives from participating states and countries have created booths offering different kinds of fun, creative activities. Anyone from Odyssey and the Iowa community is welcome and the festival is free. NASA will also have a booth to challenge and inform festival-goers. Canstruction will also have a fun sculpture made entirely out of canned goods. Afterwards, the cans will be donated to local food banks. Participants will try to visit as many booths as possible in order to collect stamps and win a prized Creativity Festival pin. It will be a friendly, fun, fair-like environment full of activity, games, prizes and entertainment.

On the final day of the Creativity Festival there will be a special International Festival, where all of the International OotM teams bring souvenirs from their homeland.

WHEN? May 28 - 30, 2008. The festival hours are: Thursday 5/28 – noon – 5 p.m. Friday — 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. & Saturday — 9 a.m. to 3 p.m
